THE GOVERNMENT WOOD DONATION .-The following particulars with regard to the Government donation, of one hundred cords of wood to the poor of this city, is published as a matter of interest to our citizens. The idea originated with the Mayor of this city, who

MAYOR'S OFFICE, ALEXANDRIA, October 30th, 1866. Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War: SIR: As the municipal head of this city, I am constrained by force of circumstances to address you as a seeker of alms. The financial affairs of our city are seriously embarrassed, and our citizens are heavily taxed; thus situated the poor of our city are likely to suffer during the coming winter.

Previous to the war it was our pride and pleasure to provide plentifully for them; then our citizens gave freely, now they have nothing

The war has increased this class of our people. Upon an application to the "Freedman's Bureau" we were relieved of the onerous re sponsibility of providing for the colored people in our midst; there is a perfect understanding between that Department and our authorities. Under these circumstances, I respectfully ask a donation of one hundred (100) cords of wood from the government wood yard here. In making this application I will call your attention to the fact that at the time of the fire here last spring, our firemen and citizens were mainly instrumental in extinguishing the flames, and thus prevented a more extensive conflagration. Their valuable services received the commendation of the Government officials there present. Other fac's might be stated, but the above, I hope, will suffice. With much respect, I remain your obedient HUGH LATHAM, Mayor.

No answer being received to this, the annexed note was addressed to the same official.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, ALEXANDRIA, November 9th, 1866. Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War:

addressing you on the subject of donating some of the in the government wood yard in this city, for the use of our poor. No response has come to the application. I hope you will pardon me for troubling you

SIR: On the 30th ultimo I had the honor of

Your early attention is respectfully solicited. Your obedient servant,

HUGH LATHAM, Mayor. The response to this came in the form of the following communication, and the delay in its reception was caused by the absence of Colonel Ludington from Washington: HEAD'QRS. DEPT. OF WASHINGTON, ) OFFICE CHIEF QUARTERMASTER, WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7th, 1866.

Hon. Hugh Latham, Mayor of Alexandria, SIR: I have the honor to inform you that I have been directed by the Quartermaster Gen-cords of wood for distribution to the poor of The wood will be turned over to you whenever you may be pleased to make application to this office. I am, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant, M. I. LUDINGTON, Brevet Brig. Gen. & Chief Q. M. Department of Washington.

Immediately upon the reception of the above communication the Mayor dispatched a messenger to Washington with the accompanying

MAYOR'SOFFICE, ALEXANDRIA, December 11th, 1866. M. I. Ludington, Brevet Brigadier General and Chief Quortermaster Department of Washington: SIR: Yours of 7th instant was received last night, informing me officially of the order from the Quartermaster General to transfer one hundred cords of wood for distribution to the poor of Alexandria."

I hasten to reply, and ask that the order for the wood be given to the messenger who will deliver this. The gift is most opportune, and I herewith tender the thanks of this community for the gracious liberality of the department. Your obedient servant,

HUGH LATHAM, Mayor. The messenger returned in the evening with an order upon Mr. Brooks, in charge of the government wood yard, to turn over fifty cords

rd and fifty cords of soft wood, to the Mayor of this city.

to Mr. Charles Bladen, who agrees to haul the one hundred cords for sixty dollars. Applications for wood have already commenced to pour in, and it is being distributed as rapidly as

THE SUPERINTENDENT OF THE NIGHT WATCH.-In the City Council, last night, the Committee to whom were referred the charges preferred against Captain Walsh, of the Night Watch, by Mayor Latham, reported that being equally divided in opinion, and unable to arrive at a satisfactory conclusion, on account of the contradictory nature of the testimony, asked to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject. The Board of Aldermen adopted the report, but the Common Council refused to concur, and amended by a reference back to the assailants. If the thieves are really in the Committee, with instructions to report the want, they had better ask, or beg, than steal. evidence, in full, to Council. The subject elicited a lively and protracted debate. Mr. Summers submitted a report, signed by himself, sustaining all the charges, and recommending the immediate removal of Captain Walsh, but it was laid on the table by a nearly unanimous

NOONDAY ROBBERY.-Yesterday, between half-past twelve and half-past one o'clock, the law office of Robt. I. Smith, esq., in the build ing on the northwest corner of King and Royal streets, was entered by a professional thief. who thoroughly examined all the drawers in the room, and carried off a pocket-book containing no money, but notes and bonds to the value of five or six thousand dollars. A short time previous to the robbery, a genteelly dressed young man entered Mr. Smith's office, nominally for the purpose of enquiring whether the adjoining room was for rent, and this man it is supposed committed the robbery. The officers have been informed of these circumstances, and are on the search for the thief.

LACONIC.-Last night, in the Common Council, while the Latham-Walsh embroglio was under consideration, and after sundry speeches had been delivered, and divers motions were pending, in reference to the subject, one of the members from the second ward rose in his nalce, and spoke thus:

DRESIDENT: As I understand the sub-MR. now before this body, it stands as jeet matter. now before this body, it stands as follows: Latha. mpo, and I therefore move up stumpibus in suc. be laid on the table be laid on the tablethat the whole subject n lost. great laughter—but motio.

ATTEMPT AT STREET ROBBERY .- On Saturday evening last, about seven o'clock, as Mr. William Currie was on his way home, when near the intersection of Cameron and St. Asaph streets, he saw two men standing on the corner, one in the shade of the lamp post, and the other wearing his hat pulled down over his face; the last one asked him the time, and as he took out his watch to see, the rascal struck at him. Mr. Currie dodged the blow, and drawing his revolver, his assailants ran off rapidly up St. Asaph street.

Mysterious Disappearance.—Professor R. M. McIntosh, from Richmond, Virginia, a music teacher, having in his possession letters of recommendation from the clergy and editors of that city, left his boarding house in this city on Monday the 3rd inst., to spend a few hours in Washington, since which time nothing has been heard of him. It is feared he has been foully dealt with.

LODGERS AT THE WATCH HOUSE. -The cold weather now prevailing has the effect of securing lodgers at the watch house almost every night. They go there and ask for quarters, which are always furnished them. Some of them are liberal, as for instance the one who stayed there last night, who this morning presented the Captain of the Watch with a fine
